Celtic, the ideal mineral water

from the Unesco classified «Worldwide Biosphere Natural Reserve».

The Celts attributed the beneficial properties of this water well before the Romans recognized these exceptionally pure waters, the bust of the goddess was been carved in the rock at the source, as a symbol of health.

A GIFT OF NATURE

For 2000 years, Celtic natural spring water has been flowing through the French «Vosges du Nord», a Unesco classified «Worldwide Biosphere Natural Reserve». Filtered through several layers of the Vosgian limestone, Celtic water provides the ideal balance of minerals for optimum hydration.
